THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 14, 1986

Dear Margaret:

I am delighted that you will be meeting with Cap Weinberger next week in London.

I wanted to take the opportunity of his visit to send my personal greetings and to underline how highly I value your support, advice, and counsel. I am pleased to learn that he will be briefing you on one of our most important and sensitive new technologies. We would, of course, welcome your reaction to this briefing.

My attention here has been focused on our important request to the Congress for aid for the Nicaraguan Freedom Fighters. I am determined to exhibit a trait that you have demonstrated time and time again: perseverance.

Please stay in close touch.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

Ron
