D. Prime Minister.

I thought you would like to know the details of the Ulster Unionist plans we discussed at our meeting last week.

The Ulster Unionist are searching for a lobbying or PR company to help promote a publicity campaign on the mainland in the very near future. I can only conclude that the thrust of this would be to attack the Anglo-Irish Accord. The sums of money involved are £200,000 which is enough to mount a very substantial PR and Lobbying campaign indeed. Perhaps most interestingly, they intend to use ratepayers' money for this purpose. They believe this to be legal, and are taking legal advice to confirm this.

I am copying this letter to Tom King, who has already been told of these reports.
