

PRIME MINISTER

MEETING WITH THE CHAIRMAN

ON

MONDAY 20th JULY at 2.30 p.m.

1. This is one of the bilaterals, and I don't know what the Chairman has on his Agenda.
2. He has told me privately that he plans to submit a paper to you on the re-organisation of Central Office by the end of the month.
3. You might like to ask him how progress is developing on the Party Conference theme.
4. My intelligence - for what it is worth - suggests that the Chairman is not clear when he wants to go as Chairman and may well want to stay on after the Conference if he feels he has your backing for his proposal on re-organisation.
5. Peter Morrison, as you know, is hoping to see you at some stage during the summer holiday period and I am quite sure that he will be pressing his own claims to re-organise Central Office as Chairman himself.
