(P. A. BEARPARK)
9 September 1987

POINTS ARISING FROM DIARY MEETING FOR 1988 HELD ON WEDNESDAY 9 SEPTEMBER

1. Invitation from Sussex Police

The Prime Minister did not think it would be possible to fit this in during the Party Conference, and if she were to do it as a one-off engagement she would have to accept similar invitations from the police forces covering Bournemouth and Blackpool. This would not be acceptable. She did, however, agree that she would do something for the Sussex police in the course of a regional tour in their area. Action: Shana Hole to explain to the Sussex police that the dinner is off and to liaise with Amanda over the next suitable regional tour.

2. Invitation from the Sir Winston Churchill Fifty Dining Club
